Major Hillyer takes leaves of his readers in the following words: The Natchez Courier, after this date, history and a record for over a third of a century, for upwards of eighteen years of which it has been under the control of the undersigued. He is not ashamed of its political or journalistic career. Educated as an old line Whig, disagreeing during all the troublous times that preceded the civil war, from the Democratic majority, he stood faithful to the Union of the States while there was a Union, and too often incurred censure and rebuke for warning the people that constitutional remedies ought to be ex-hausted before resorting to measures of more doubtful expedience or result. When different counsels prevalled, he knew no other first allegiance than to the adopted State which protected his fireside and claimed his fealty. During the struggle, he endeavored to do his Mississippi journalism. He does not find in an impoverished community the disposition and ability that can aid him in case, the entry of satisfaction is not held

It has come to this, that negro suffrage is better than soldier suffrage in the estination of the leaders of Radicalism. Let the soldiers throughout the land remember that their comrades here have been, by the Radical leaders, placed below the most ignorant negro supported by the Freedmen's Bureau. The negroes the year was 652, of whom 413 were born are allowed to vote, whether of age or in Montreal, and the remainder in other under age, without owning any stake in the community rather than the cost of his being brought here to vote; while the enlisted soldier, all scarred over in of some of those from the United States the battles of the Union, who happens are revolting. The rule, if adopted, must be made applicable to all.

A WASHINGTON dispatch to the Philadelphia Inquirer asserts that certain parties in Washington, acting in concert with Mr. Thornton, the British Minister. are endeavoring to engineer a bill through Congress to reduce the duty on bituminous coal from Nova Scotia to a merely nominal rate, so that Maryland and Pennsylvania coal cannot compete with it, and which, of course, would give to Nova Scotla a monopoly, or nearly so, of the sea coast trade.

Well, the party in the ascendant in Congress, should understand their duty. Having carried out the will of their British masters, to the destruction of the best interests of their country, the prostration of business, and the eternal blotting out of all hope of commercial prosperity, and greatly endangering the existence Catalogues, of the Government Itself, it should not baulk at so trivial a step as breaking down and rendering of no avail the natural resources of a province or two!
